The Life and Times of Frédéric Bastiat

1801 - 1850

Key: Blue (events in author's life); Green (historical events); Red (books & organizations).

This Timeline is part of Liberty Fund's Online Library of Liberty <oll.libertyfund.org>.

Garnier trans.	f Smith's Wealth of Nations
1800

1804

1805

1803

Born in Bayonne

1801

Abdication of Napoleon 1814

1814 – 1818

1815

Attends school in Sorèze

French military intervention in Spain 1823

Charles X comes to the throne 1824 Restoration of the Bourbon Monarchy Charles Comte, Traité de législation 1827

Birth of Richard Cobd	en (dies 1865)
1804

J.B. Say, Traité d'économie politique

Napoleon is crowned Emperor

Death of his mother 1808

Death of his father

1810

1810

1818

1825

1825

Fr. ed. of Ricardo, Principles of Political Economy

Works for uncle in Bayonne

1819 - 1825

1820

1830

Inherits grandfather's estate

1830

1831

1833

```
Foundation of Journal des économistes
                                                1841
                                                    Foundation of Société d'Économie Politique
                                                    1842
                                                             On the Influence of French & English Tariffs
                                                             1844
                                                             Begins corresponding with R. Cobden
                                                             1844
                                                                 Travels to Paris and London
                                                                 1845
                                                                 Ch. Dunoyer, De la Liberté du travail
                                                                  1845
                                                                      Editor of Le Libre Échange
                                                                      1846 - 1848
                                                                      Co-founds the Association for Free Trade
                                                                      1846
                                                                      Abolition of the British Corn Laws
                                                                      1846
                                                                          Economic Sophisms II
                                                                          1847
                                                                              Founds journals République française and Jacques
                                                                               Bonhomme
                                                                               1848
                                                                              J.S. Mill, Principles of Political Economy
                                                                               1848
                                                                              The State; Property & Law
                                                                               1848
                                                                                   G. de Molinari, Les Soirées de la rue Saint-Lazare
                                                                                   1849
                                                                                   Capital & Rent; Peace & Freedom; Free Credit
                                                                                   1849
                                                                                   Elected to Legislative Assembly; particpates in V. Hugo's
                                                                                   Congrès de la Paix
                                                                                   1849
                                                                                       Economic Harmonies; The Law; What is Seen & Not Seen
July Monarchy of Louis-Philippe
                                           Travels in Spain and Portugal
                                                                                       1850
                                            1840
                                                                                       Dies in Rome
                                           Proudhon, What is Property?
    Appointed county judge
                                                                                       1850
                                            1840
                                                                                            Creation of Second Empire under Louis Napoleon
             Elected to General Council of Landes
                                                                  Economic Sophisms I
                                                                  1845
                                                                                            1851
                  1835
                                        1840
                                                              1845
                                                                                    1850
                                                                                                          1855
                                                                                                                                1860
```